Located not far from the tourist sites of the Pont d'Avignon and the Pont du Gard, both UNESCO heritage sites, the 6-hectare estate, whose origins date back to the 16th century, was a renowned inn/coach house where historical figures such as François I, Catherine de Médicis, King Henri IV, Cardinal de Richelieu....

Over the centuries, the house evolved according to its different uses. Recently, it benefited from a restoration to become a place of reception of quality while respecting the cachet of the place.

Facing its surrounding countryside, its vineyards and its olive trees, the...
