Ref. 682V327M - Tavel

On the hedge of a renowned wine village, this historical building is completely atypical. Originally a flourmill in the 18th c., it was completed with a thread mill at the start of the 19th c., and has shaped the history of its village. Some remains from this time can still be seen on the property nowadays.

Of the 600 m², this building offers great potential and is positioned a few meters away from all amenities and in a bucolic environment, free from any nuisance.

The building now counts 2 independent housing units:

- The first one, over approx. 210 m², was renovated in 2007, with a...
